

Verde Valley Wine Festival

We're back! The Verde Valley Wine Festival is returning to Historic Downtown Clarkdale in the Clarkdale Town Complex, 39 North 9th Street. The festivities begin with our Platinum VIP wine dinner event on Friday May 11th from 6-9pm. Limited seating available so get your tickets early.

Then on Saturday, May 12, 2018, the festivities are in full swing with unlimited fun, featuring wine and beer tastings, food and live music – at Northern Arizona's premier Wine and Culinary festival of the year, presented by Four Eight Wineworks.

This event highlights the community of Clarkdale and the Verde Valley at large with the goal of offering the finest Arizona wineries, breweries, spirits and restaurants committed to creating homegrown products for locals and visitors to enjoy. Additionally products will be available from local artisans and merchants.

We're partnering with local nonprofits. This year, a portion of the proceeds from ticket sales for the event will benefit The Clarkdale Foundation's philanthropic programs and the Arizona Vignerons Alliance

With a VIP ticket you get all General Admission benefits; Early Admission at 11 AM; Swag Bag; access to our air conditioned VIP Lounge; and exclusive food & wine sampling in the VIP Lounge.

General Admission tickets will be $45 the day of the event, buy them in advance and SAVE $10! For tickets and information, go to VerdeValleyWineFestival.com

Brought to you by...

Verde Events and Tents, AZ Wine Lifestyle, Matias Sandoval of Edward Jones, Merkin Vineyards, Russ Lyon Sotheby's, 10-12 Lounge, Backus Building Companies, The Town of Clarkdale, Randy and Debbie Garrison, Mountain Gate Homes, Sedona Monthly, Local First Arizona, Sedona NOW TV, Larry Green Chevrolet, Hyundai of Cottonwood, Verde Valley Archaeology Center, Verde Canyon Railroad, Kim Molden Tax and Accounting, Wealth Management and Phoenix Magazine

About Four Eight Wineworks

Four Eight Wineworks is Northern Arizona's only winemaking incubator, providing access to the tools emerging viticulturists need to become full-fledged winemakers. Successful participants of the Four Eight cooperative program include Chateau Tumbleweed, and The Oddity Wine Collective. Founded in 2013, Four Eight Wineworks intends to keep vintner talent in Arizona by providing the resources needed for high quality production. Visit the Four Eight Wineworks tasting room in Downtown Clarkdale, Arizona at 907 Main Street, or online at www.four8wineworks.com.

About The Clarkdale Foundation

Founded in 1998, The Clarkdale Foundation is a 501-c-3 nonprofit organization whose mission is to enhance the community of Clarkdale, Arizona through philanthropic endeavors. For nearly 20 years, the Foundation has remained committed to creating an endowment as a legacy for future Clarkdale generations, support the enhancement of community facilities and providing financial assistance for the arts, education and cultural activities. For more information, visit <http://clarkdalefoundation.org/>.